"For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised." (2 Cor 5:14-15, ESV)

PRAY – Week Three

KEY SCRIPTURE: A verse to memorize and meditate on this week.

"Pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you." (1 Thessalonians 5:17-18, ESV)

TAKING IT FURTHER: A section of scripture to ponder in depth.

"And he told them a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart. He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected man. And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, 'Give me justice against my adversary.' For a while he refused, but afterward he said to himself, 'Though I neither fear God nor respect man, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will give her justice, so that she will not beat me down by her continual coming.' " And the Lord said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge says. And will not God give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long over them? I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?" (Luke 18:1-8, ESV)

QUESTIONS: Considerations to renew your mind and move you to action.

- What stands out in this Scripture?
- What does this Scripture teach us about God and people?
- What might God might be calling you to repent of and change in your life?
- How can you put into action what God has taught you in this Scripture?

HOW I WILL: Ways to practice this discipline.

- Write down three specific needs of others you are aware of this week and take those to God, praying aloud.
- Recognize your daily experiences as opportunities to pray and take that opportunity to pray.

This week do one of the above or a similar action that fits in your settings.

PRAYER: Words to turn your heart to God and ask for His blessing.

O holy and most merciful God, You have taught us the way of Your commandments. We implore You to pour out Your grace into our hearts. Cause it to bear fruit in us that, being ever mindful of Your mercies and Your laws, we may always be directed to Your will and daily increase in love toward You and one another. Enable us to resist all evil and to live a godly life. Help us to follow the example of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and to walk in His steps until we shall possess the kingdom that has been prepared for us in heaven; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

"What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you."
(Philippians 4:9, ESV)
