"For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised." (2 Cor 5:14-15, ESV)

WAIT ON THE LORD – Week Three

KEY SCRIPTURE: A verse to memorize and meditate on this week.

"It will be said on that day, "Behold, this is our God; we have waited for him, that he might save us. This is the Lord; we have waited for him; let us be glad and rejoice in his salvation." (Isaiah 25:9, ESV)

TAKING IT FURTHER: A section of scripture to ponder in depth.

"And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. And bring the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate. For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to celebrate." (Luke 15:20–24, ESV)

QUESTIONS: Considerations to renew your mind and move you to action.

- What stands out in this Scripture?
- What does this Scripture teach us about God and people?
- What might God might be calling you to repent of and change in your life?
- How can you put into action what God has taught you in this Scripture?

HOW I WILL: Ways to practice this discipline.

- When you attend the Lord's Supper, ponder how that meal is a foretaste of the heavenly feast.
- Talk with your family during a meal both about God's blessings now and the blessings to come on the Last Day.

This week do one of the above or a similar action that fits in your settings.

PRAYER: Words to turn your heart to God and ask for His blessing.

O holy and most merciful God, You have taught us the way of Your commandments. We implore You to pour out Your grace into our hearts. Cause it to bear fruit in us that, being ever mindful of Your mercies and Your laws, we may always be directed to Your will and daily increase in love toward You and one another. Enable us to resist all evil and to live a godly life. Help us to follow the example of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and to walk in His steps until we shall possess the kingdom that has been prepared for us in heaven; through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

"What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me—practice these things, and the God of peace will be with you."
(Philippians 4:9, ESV)
